

Humanitarian project Vitebsk Regional Endocrinological Treatment and Prevention Center

1. Project Name: "Endocrine Health"
2. Project duration : 2021-2022
3. Organization, the applicant who proposes the project : Vitebsk Regional Endocrinological Treatment and Prevention Center
4. Project mission : Prevention and diagnosis of endocrine pathology at the early stages, reduction of mortality caused by endocrine diseases. Quality improvement of medical and diagnostic care provided to the population of Vitebsk region, reduction of the risk of development and timely detection of complications.
5. Project tasks : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - early detection of thyroid pathology, complications of diabetes mellitus; - organization of medical and diagnostic work at a higher level; - improvement of diagnostic search.
6. Target group : population of Vitebsk and Vitebsk region
7. Procurement activities : 1. Purchase of a high-class ultrasound diagnostic apparatus equipped with linear and convex electronic sensors - 1 item. Estimated cost: $77,000USD 2. Purchase of a portable ultrasound diagnostic apparatus equipped with an electronic linear sensor with a biopsy adapter - 1 item. Estimated cost: $57,000USD
8. Total funding (in US dollars): $134000
Source of Funding	Funding (in US dollars)

Grantor's funds	132000
Co-financing	2000
9. Project location (County/Region/City): Republic of Belarus, Vitebsk Vitebsk Regional Endocrinological Treatment and Prevention Center
10. Contact person: Pedchenets Lyudmila - Chief Medical Officer Contact phone: +375 29 644 14 24, 8 0212 33 13 66 E-mail: voed@vitebsk.by

We`re looking forward to working together!